Atenor recognized as sector leader by the Global Real Estate Sustainable Benchmark (GRESB) with an exceptional score of 99.37%

La Hulpe (Belgium), 16 October 2024, at 17:45

Atenor (BSE: ATEB) achieved an outstanding score of 99.37% in the Global Real Estate Sustainable Benchmark 's evaluation of 2,223 real estate companies across 80 markets. Awarded 5 stars, the company also ranked first in a number of categories, including its development score.

For the past 15 years, GRESB has annually assessed and compared the ESG performance of real estate assets, providing clarity and insight to financial markets on complex sustainability issues.

GRESB data is used to compare investments across portfolios, and to better understand the opportunities, risks, and choices to be made as the industry transitions to a more sustainable future.

Sebastien Roussotte, CEO GRESB: "When we talk about making real progress towards a more sustainable world, we're looking for practical indicators. What does it mean to be a GRESB Sector Leader? It's a recognition of leadership and a demonstration of the deep commitment and excellence that drives the sector forward."

The award underlines Atenor's commitment, driven by the innovative and strategic initiatives of Archilab, its in-house Research and Development laboratory.

Julie Willem, Director of Archilab: "At Atenor, our strategic pivot towards sustainability is not just a policy; it is a commitment led by Archilab. Here, innovation meets strategy, shaping the future of sustainable development. Archilab's role is crucial in aligning our projects with strict ESG objectives, ensuring that our environmental, economic, and social performance sets new industry benchmarks."
