

Atenor announces appointment of Caroline Vanderstraeten as CFO

La Hulpe (Belgium), March 8th, 2024

Atenor (BSE: ATEB) announces that its Board of Directors has approved the appointment of Twigami SRL, represented by Caroline Vanderstraeten to the position of CFO and as a member of ATENOR's Executive Committee, with effect as of 2 April 2024.

Caroline Vanderstraeten is a seasoned financial executive with demonstrated performance in scaling and leading diverse finance teams, both in Belgian and international environments. She has a proven track record of success in Business finance management, Business planning and reporting, Controlling, Finance Transformation and process improvements as well as acquisition integration. Known for her strong business partnership and exceptional analytical skills, she is experienced in both hands-on and strategic finance management.

Stéphan Sonnevile, CEO, commented: " Given Caroline's extensive experience in leading Finance teams across organisations and sectors, she will establish new qualitative standards in managing Atenor's financial position and the way it finances its operations, focusing on a robust and sustainable approach. Caroline has proven leadership skills and a strong work ethic; she will act as a member of Atenor's Executive Committee. Her can-do mentality, proactive approach, perseverance and positive mindset will certainly add value to Atenor as we future-proof our business model. "

Caroline Vanderstraeten added: " I am thankful to Stéphan Sonnevile and the Board of Directors for their trust, and I am excited to become a part of Atenor. Joining such an experienced team fills me with enthusiasm, and I look forward to contributing to Atenor's strategy and innovative projects. I am dedicated to making a meaningful impact and supporting Atenor's future and ambitions alongside the entire finance team. "
